

CANCELLATION & INSURANCE WAIVER

For $50 US, payable with your trip deposit, you can protect your $500 US non-refundable deposit with our cancellation waiver fee. This waiver fee will cover your $500 US deposit if you have to cancel for a medical emergency (of you or your immediate family) from the time of deposit until the final balance is paid.

For trip cancellation and medical insurance, you can reach out to banks who often sell insurance, or other companies such as World Nomads. Also, many credit cards include insurance if the purchase is made on that credit card. Be sure to read the fine print.

International medical insurance is mandatory on every BikeHike adventure. Additionally, trip cancellation / interruption insurance is highly recommended. Without cancellation protection, you are subject to BikeHike's cancellation terms as stated above. Many banks sell travel insurance as do many credit cards companies.

By signing this form, you acknowledge that international medical coverage is mandatory and that it is your responsibility to seek your own cancellation / interruption coverage. Prior to departure, you will also need to supply our office with proof of your international medical coverage plan.
